Acceptance of this Agreement constitutes a contract between the parties within the meaning of Article 1103 of the French Civil Code.

By accepting the terms of the Agreement, you expressly agree that performance of the Agreement shall begin immediately upon your acceptance.

You are obliged to repay the amount of the credit in accordance with the repayment schedule agreed at the time of the transaction.

You have a withdrawal period of 14 calendar days from the conclusion of the Agreement.

To the extent that the 14-day cooling-off period does not apply to distance contracts for the carriage of passengers, in accordance with article L221-2 of the French Consumer Code and article 20 of Corsair's General Conditions of Sale and Carriage, you may exercise your right of withdrawal only with respect to the installment contract and not with respect to the reservation.

Consequently, if You exercise your right of withdrawal, You must pay for your ticket immediately. If you fail to pay the outstanding amount, your reservation will be automatically cancelled. Any instalments already paid will remain due to Corsair and no refund will be made. In this case, no amount may be claimed for airport taxes.

7. Each refund is automatically debited from the credit card whose registration you have accepted with our payment service provider Monext on the due date of each payment. We will send you a reminder the day before each due date.

You can also repay in advance the outstanding balance at any time, free of charge. To do so, please click on the "status of your monthly payments" link in the e-mails that Corsair sends you in connection with payment in instalments.

If Corsair attempts to debit your credit card for the repayment of an installment and is unsuccessful, we will send You every day until the payment is regularized, and within a maximum of seven (7) days an e-mail containing a link allowing You to regularize the payment of the installment.

If the credit card used for repayment changes or expires during the term of the loan, you will be able to change the credit card used for repayment by clicking on the "status of your monthly payments" link in the e-mails sent to you by Corsair in connection with payment in instalments.

8. Failure to pay any installment within seven (7) calendar days will result in automatic termination of this Agreement and the contract of carriage with Corsair. Any instalments already paid will remain due to Corsair and no refund will be made. In this event, no amount may be claimed for airport taxes.

9. If You proceed with a modification of your tickets and modification or fare readjustment fees are applied, these fees will be immediately payable. They cannot be added to the existing schedule. In the event of a change to a lower fare, the fare difference will not be refunded to You in accordance with article 1.2.3 of Corsair's General Conditions of Sale and Carriage.

In the event of a change to the departure date, and only if the new departure date does not allow payment of the installments seven (7) days before departure, Corsair will cancel the remaining instalments and immediately debit the outstanding amounts from the credit card used for the purchase.

10. If you cancel your purchase on the Corsair flycorsair.com website, in accordance with Corsair's General Conditions of Sale and Carriage, we will refund you according to the fare conditions of your tickets. If the fare conditions of your ticket do not allow a refund, or if the instalments already paid do not cover the cost of cancelling your ticket, Corsair will charge the outstanding amount to your credit card.

11. If You pay more than You owe us, we will refund to Your credit card. Similarly, if Corsair makes a refund to Your credit card and it later turns out that You were not entitled to this refund, Corsair reserves the right to recover this refund by debiting Your credit card.

12. We cannot be held responsible if You are unable to access the payment facility option or if we are unable to enforce any of our obligations under these terms and conditions, pursuant to applicable law or regulation, in the event of abnormal and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our reasonable control, the effects of which would have been unavoidable despite our best efforts.
